Gandarilla One of Business Insurance 2010 Women to Watch

~ Grace Gandarilla Receives Top Honor ~

EL PASO- December 15, 2010 – CF Jordan Construction, a leading Texas based commercial construction and construction management company is proud to announce Risk and Safety Manager, Grace Gandarilla, as one of Business Insurance Magazine’s Top Women to Watch in 2010.

Business Insurance annually hosts its Women to Watch feature in order to identify and recognize individuals doing exceptional work in risk management, benefits management, commercial insurance and related fields. As CF Jordan’s Risk and Safety Manager, Gandarilla is responsible for the safety of over 400 construction workers in El Paso and oversees thousands of subcontractor employees throughout the state of Texas. Her positive and diplomatic characteristics assist her in leading the CF Jordan team to a safe future.

Darren Woody, president and CEO of CF Jordan Construction, stated, “We are honored to have such a diligent employee such as Grace. She works hard each day to ensure all CF Jordan and subcontractor employees at every job site are working safely and meet all requirements to stay educated and maintain a positive working environment. We are very proud to have her on our team.”

The awards will be presented to the 25 selected women at a special luncheon in Chicago on Tuesday, December 7, 2010. The honorees were selected based on specific nomination criteria and Business Insurance editors selected the winners based on their leadership, achievements, and impacts on the buyers of insurance or benefits.
